Call for Papers

MERJ offers a forum for the exchange of academic research into media education and pedagogy conducted by academics, practitioners and teachers situated in all sectors and contexts for media education.

Outcomes of research into any aspect of media education and / or media literacy education are welcome. Findings related to media education policy, media education practice / pedagogy, media literacy education and the use of media and technology in education are all of interest to the journal.

There are two options for submission:

- Full articles: 5000 – 7500 words (fully developed outcomes of research).
- MERJ Research Forum pieces: 1500 – 3000 words (interim research findings, 'thought pieces', research in development).

Submissions / enquiries to merj@cemp.ac.uk

Deadlines for specific issues and the MERJ submission conventions are at <http://merj.info/>
